

Rural Revival Minutes – March 26, 2018

Members Present (directors in bold): Tim Eisenbeis, John Koch, Larry Eisenbeis, Phillip Eisenbeis, Lillie Eisenbeis, Dennis Jurkovich, Lyle Preheim, Dee Millar, Todd Hofer, Josh Hofer, Ardon Wek, Nate Preheim(via Skype).

Minutes: In the interest of time and since meeting minutes are being sent to the group before each meeting, we will dispense with the reading out loud the meeting minutes today and in the future. The minutes of the February 26, 2018 meeting were reviewed and approved. Approval moved by John Koch, second by Dee Millar, passed unanimously.

Treasurer's Report. No Report

Farmers Market: Lillie will follow up on when the farmers market will start and who is coordinating. Josh will promote the farmers market on the Freeman city web site.

Freeman Butcher Shop: We reviewed Tim's draft questionnaire, copy attached. The word "annually" and bison category will be added to question 2. The 6* question "Would you consider investing in it?" will be removed.

Josh compiled a list of names to call and volunteer callers, copy attached. Nate volunteered to consolidate the results. He requested we send him the results by April 15.

There is a USDA butcher shop in Hudson, S.D. Nate will visit it.

Saner Land Trust: We discussed the possibility of Rural Revival being involved in the trust. Tim will discuss financing options with a bank.

Adjournment: Moved by Lyle Preheim, seconded by Phil Eisenbeis and passed unanimously.

Respectfully submitted – Dennis Jurkovich
